<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Duties/Supp	Petitioners state the minors currently live with Petitioner Anna VanderPoel in Fresno. Temporary guardianship is necessary because the parents are addicted to drugs and alcohol. The minors are regularly exposed to drugs and possibly prostitution lifestyle and left unattended while the parents are high or passed out. Petitioners wish to protect them from this environment and place Ava in school and seek medical treatment for Jack, who is not up to date with his vaccinations.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Order	Petitioners state the children had been living with the parents in a vehicle on the streets for two months. When Andrea picked up the children from the parents at a gas station, they didn't have any diapers, clothes, toothbrushes, or any necessities, and Rachel was slumped in the truck incoherent. On 11-22-13, it was discussed and decided that Anna would take in the children because she had the room and was capable of caring for them financially and emotionally.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UCCJEA	Petitioners state that in 2011 when Jack was born, the children were placed in foster care in Texas for approx. one year. The children were eventually returned to the father with an order that the mother not be present around the children. The father returned to Madera; however, the mother followed, and they are back abusing drugs, etc. Petitioners fear the children are again at risk of being placed in foster care if temporary guardianship is not granted.
